

XM traffic and weather help provide needed information to people who live in or passing through the area, especially in case of bad weather. It will also help if you are not from the area and there is a need to detour around an area. I have found it very helpful. I understand that the trucking industry relies on it also.